The Travel through the Landscape of your Face - FaceIT!

Imagine the World Through the Eyes of an Amazon Native

How would a native of the Amazon Jungle react, if your mobile phone, to him perhaps a strange brick-stone-like object is ringing and you tell him, that it's your mother ringing you up? And what about those weird creatures living in that box with the window in front, that you and I would know to be a TV?

Certainly the good fellow would at least be a bit surprised ... But it's even more probable, that he would be afraid!

Well, in his world the one and only possible explanation for this phenomenon would be sophisticated magic.

Playing the Ostrich-Game

We are living in a progressive civilisation and are used to talking on mobile phones while travelling, watching TV and filling dish washers with dirty plates and glasses.

While this has become part of our everyday life, the wisdom and rituals of other or even ancient cultures often make people shake their heads in disbelief.

These things don't fit any longer in this modern world, do they?

Getting Rid of the Cobwebs of Time

Why not? Now is the time to become open for those things and experiences, that cannot be explained with the limited capacity of a human brain, but nevertheless can be useful for us.

To drive a car, a driving licence is required, but you don't have to be familiar with all the technical details of the engine, do you?

Modules of Wisdom in a Toolkit

It is my vision to simplify the essentials of esoteric systems (e.g. tarot, astrology, numerology) and pack them into a modular system, which can be used by everyone after a little instruction.

Each module works stand-alone, but can also be combined with others.

It is up to you to choose from the modules and decide the "speed of your travel". You will decide, whether you want to use further modules or even want to get deeper into the subjects on a theoretical level.
